

Jane Banahan is a hard working, compassionate, and driven member of our Class of 2020. The positivity that she brings to our campus community is palpable, and she is never afraid to let her leadership qualities shine.

Jane's teachers note that she is a quintessential "outside the box" thinker. Her unique approach to classroom assignments and tasks makes her stand out from her peers. She is innovative and energized by assignments that allow her to let her creativity shine.

Jane would be the perfect addition to your team and school community. She will certainly never let you down, and she is a young woman destined to accomplish great things.

- Christina Bergamo, Director of College Counseling, Trinity Hall